

School of Linguistics and Applied Language Studies

Mini-Symposium on Language and Identity

Friday 21st February 2003. Room HSS 301

DRAFT 2 19 Feb

10.15	Assemble and introductions
10.30	Csanád Bodó (Budapest): Hungarian-to-German language shift in Oberwart – 25 years on
11.00	Julia Sallabank (Reading): The contemporary sociolinguistics of Guernsey Norman French
11.30	David Levey (Cadiz): Language identity and allegiance in Gibraltar
12.00	Edward Salifu Mahama (Reading): Language and identity in development
12.30	LUNCH (Cedars cafeteria)
1.30	Arfaan Khan (Reading): Language and identity among teenagers of Anglo, Asian and Black ethnicities in Britain
2.00	Paul Kerswill (Reading): The North East as a region: evidence from dialect levelling and self-identification
2.30-3.00	Discussion and tea